MINUTES

Christina Doucette welcomed members and guests, and wished Happy Birthday to members with December and January birthdays.

Budget Report

Linda McLaren reported that the guild's balance at the beginning of the reporting period was $8364.86. After paying expenses of $1351.02, the remaining balance is $7013.84. The books were available for examination at the meeting.

Hospitality

When bringing treats for break time, members are asked to try to have diabetic and nut free alternatives.

25th Anniversary Pins

If you haven't already got one, pick up your 25th anniversary guild pin from Laura Boksman.

Cuddles and Hugs

Interested in making quilts for cancer patients? Cuddles and Hugs meets on the third Thursday of the month, rotating to various locations in Golden Lake and Eganville. Call Grace Kuiken 625-1260 for details.

Library

The library has added to its collection:

Magazines: The Canadian Quilter #48; Australian Patchwork and Quilting Vol. 18 #7 and Vol. 18 #8; Fons and Porter Love of Quilting Jan/Feb 2010; and a selection of 6 magazines donated by Joyce Lemke.

Books:

- Beautiful Blooms, Quilts and Cushions to Appliqué, by Susan Taylor Propst
- Sweet 16s Brights, 6 Beautiful Quilts Pieced with 1/16 yard cuts, by Suzanne McNeill
- Open a Can of Worms, Scrappy Quilts made from 2 ½ inch wide strips, by Debbie Caffrey

Program

- Carol Boldt reported that as a result of the votes of members, Heather Stewart will be asked to teach classes in Watercolour and a Bride's Quilt, on May 18 and 19. Cost will be $30 per course. Members can sign up now.
- Carol Boldt proposed a "Finish Day" at the Marguerite Centre in Pembroke, so we could move along some of those nagging UFOs to completed status.
- Lorraine Davidson gave a demonstration of various tools and techniques for marking quilts for hand and machine quilting. Thanks Lorraine.
- Don't forget to bring your interpretive mystery quilts for show and tell.

Show and Tell draw winner: Jan Baird
Draw winners: Congratulations to Marie Luise von Taube and (twice) to Julie St. Aube.

After the program, the Sportsman's Club was available for free time and individual projects until 10 pm.
